Our Love Story

Hyatt Regency Buffalo has been an integral part of downtown for over 35 years. Originally the Genesee Building built in 1922, the Snyder family bought and renovated the then-office building into the hotel that it is today. Although some changes have been made, such as the addition of the Atrium over Genesee Street, there remains a focus on maintaining historical integrity. A great example of this is the original entrance to the building still standing in the lobby. Buffalo is a city that is proud of its past, and because of this we at the Hyatt strive to honor tradition while being creative and innovative.

Generations of weddings, special events, and memories are deeply enriched into our hotel's culture. Let us, the experts, celebrate your love story with a perfect wedding celebration here at the Hyatt Regency Buffalo.

Our Happily Ever Afters

Michael

"The service was top notch, your team was always smiling and performing tasks/request without question. The food preparation was as good as any 5 star restaurant in the area, both dinner and brunch. The cleanliness of the area was like strolling through a Disney Park, always clean and you never saw who was doing the work. We can not say enough about the Space, the room showed like a 10 carat diamond!"

Carolyn

"Where can I even start with my experience at the Hyatt - they far exceeded our expectations! The staff truly treats you like a VIP celebrity the weekend of the wedding. Many of my family members asked if they were placed at a "special table" because their server was so personable and accommodating. I got more compliments than I could have ever imagined. Even my hard-to-please in-laws said this was the classiest venue they've ever been to! We could not be happier!"

Liz

"Our event manager was truly amazing! Loved the professionalism and the meetings to keep everyone on a timeline. We loved the unique and personalized tasting with Chef. All of the guests were thrilled with the service and spectacular food and beverage! Everyone is still talking about all the food that was served - from cocktail hour to ALL the courses - nothing fell short of perfection!"

Nicole

"I just recently had my wedding at the Hyatt Regency Buffalo and I couldn't be more satisfied. Working with them was so great, I never worried for a minute while planning the wedding - they took care of everything. On the actual wedding day everything was beautiful and organized. I received several compliments from my guests on how wonderful the service was from the front drive, to the rooms to the bartenders. I am so happy I chose this venue for my wedding!"
