Why Us?

Your wedding is one of the most important events of your life and should be exactly as you have imagined it! Such an important event should be one that you can totally enjoy. Whether your wedding is formal or casual, the style of your wedding should reflect your personal taste, and at Jamison's we strive to help you create the wedding of your dreams.

When you entrust Jamison's to make your event happen the way you envisioned, you can relax and enjoy the day and leave the details to us. We have several wedding coordinators with over 16 years of experience working for you, 2 of which will be there on the day of the wedding making sure all parts of the day are flawless. We also have an experienced in-house professional DJ and friendly event staff at every wedding. Our goal is to make your wedding as stress free as possible. A wedding requires careful planning and organization to make your event truly memorable. There are approximately 150 things that happen in the background of a wedding and reception. An event that runs smoothly has every aspect of the event coordinated. From drinks and food to set up and clean up, we handle it all.

We assist you to design and arrange a wonderful celebration. We are committed to quality at every event, helping coordinate the entire event in your colors and theme and at the location of your choice. We strive to fulfill our client's every wish and use competitive pricing for the quality services offered. Services that include not only assisting in coordinating your event, but also decorating guest tables with linens and centerpieces before your wedding, setting up your buffet table, cake table, beverage table and gift table (these tables are included in price). As well as all the setup and cleanup. We also have flexible payment options. We accept check, debit/credit card (3% processing fee), paypal (3% process fee), Direct ACH (1% processing fee), and cash as well as payment plans.

Options and alternatives are important and to alleviate stress, we have all the basics here plus a vast collection of extras. Quality tablecloths, napkins (paper or cloth), dinnerware (white china or premium clear plastic) and silverware (real or clear, silver, or gold plasticware) are included for events, or clients are welcome to bring in their own items. We have a wide variety of vases, lanterns, crates, wood rounds, jars, and much more decorative items to choose from. You have the option of having your event catered by a local restaurant, by our in-house caterer, or provide your own food. Wherever the food is from, our event staff will setup all the food on a wide selection of our serve ware, make it look amazing, keep it refilled, and put it all away.

We are here to guide you through the process of deciding on the various components of your event. At Jamison's you can enjoy the journey of planning and on your wedding day, relax and enjoy the entire day knowing that we are there with you to make it happen just as you have always dreamed. We aren't just a venue or a company, we are family and friends who love weddings and enjoy making your day special!
