THE FEATHERBONE FACTORY

| THREE OAKS, MICHIGAN |

1850 Three Oaks, Michigan, was settled by Henry Chamberlain. Born in Ludlow, Vermont, E. K. Warren comes to work for Chamberlain in 1864. E. K. Warren, a staunch prohibitionist, founded the historic building that we now occupy as a buggy whip and corsets factory. Warren revolutionized corsets manufacturing in the late 19th century with the use of the flexible featherbone instead of the stiff whalebone. E. K. Warren's success received attention worldwide, putting Three Oaks, on the map.

“

We had our October wedding here and WOW this place was more than my dreams could have imagined. Our wedding photographer recommended this place to us 2 years ago and upon touring we immediately fell in love. It has a very rustic, romantic vibe. The food was great, the staff was helpful, and we had an amazing night. We have gotten so many compliments about how fun and beautiful our wedding was. Thanks again to Deborah Johnson Photography for recommending this place to us, we can't thank her enough for telling us of this incredible venue!

This venue is fantastic! We were married here this past March and had an amazing experience. The venue is beautiful, charming, and the food and drinks cannot be praised enough. We still have guests reaching out about the high quality. Everyone went above and beyond to make sure everything about our day went off perfectly. I highly recommend them to anyone who is looking for a wedding venue.
