Cavezza Hall

The museum's Cavezza Hall is an awe-inspiring venue for your most special occasions. This sprawling space can hold dozens of tables and still have room for a band and dance floor. The iconic Last 100 Yards ramp looms above with a Bradley Fighting Vehicle and a Huey helicopter appearing to teeter on the edge. Twinkling lights falling from the rafters overhead add ambiance.

Heritage Hall

Heritage Hall gives intimacy to smaller occasions, yet can accommodate up to 130 guests for a sit-down luncheon, or as many as 200 for a reception or presentation. Its walls, lined with original military art, will remind your guests of the spectacular facility that surrounds them.

2nd Infantry Regiment Gallery (Mezzanine)

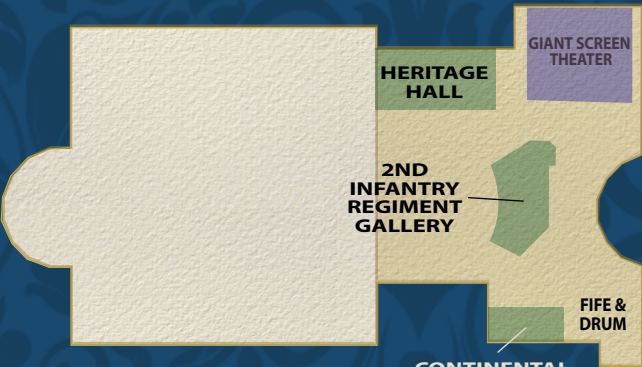

This beautiful open gallery is located on the museum's mezzanine, overlooking the expansive lobby and the museum's signature attraction, the Last 100 Yards ramp. Its 2,500 square feet of space is perfect for receptions.

Patriot Hall

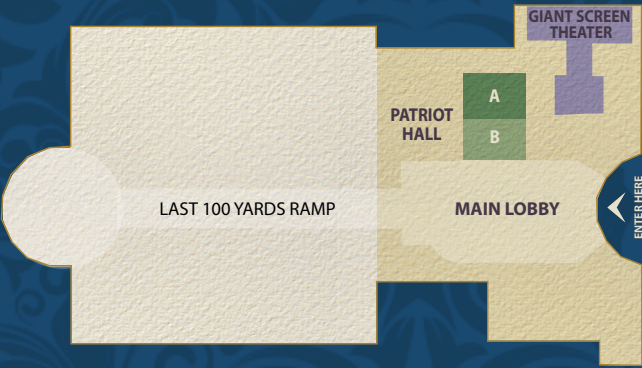

There is a total of 2,000 square feet of classroom space available, perfect for your meetings or conferences. The space can be divided into two equally sized classrooms depending on your needs. Both sides have complete audio/visual set-ups.

Continental Room

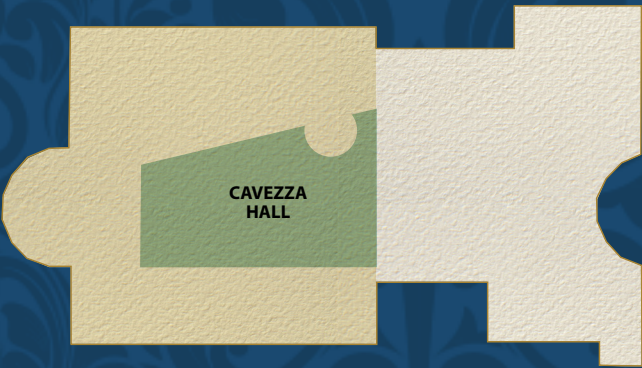

This private dining room is located in the Fife and Drum restaurant on the museum's mezzanine level. Its walls of windows reveal a stunning view of Heritage Walk and the parade field where Soldiers graduate from basic training. The Continental Room can seat approximately 40 people.

You won't need flowers, decorations or art when you hold your special event outdoors in the museum's grand rotunda. The iconic Follow Me statue atop a 10-foot granite pedestal takes command beneath a 75-foot dome. This space is absolutely breathtaking at dusk.

Courtyard

The museum's newest venue, the Courtyard, offers an exceptional outdoor experience. Overhead string lights and charming southern lampposts cast a golden glow on your wedding, dance or dinner. Up to 300 guests will enjoy a spectacular view of gardens and the museum's massive campus. A gazebo provides a stage for musicians or a sweetheart table.
