

Wedding quick-sheet

2024 - 2025

Leah Gastler, Manager

Gastler Farm
159 Middlefield Rd,
Durham, CT 06422

What sets us apart:

We are a 4th generation family farm, and a woman-owned small business. We're also personable, flexible, and human- we've put together a totally DIY wedding ourselves and we know what goes into it! We pride ourselves in maintaining our space with a reverence to artistic vision and eco-friendliness. Because of this, our space will never be "perfect" in the world of chem-lawns and resorts, but will always be a reflection of our love and balance with nature. Our vibe easily spans from rustic and laid-back, to bohemian and whimsical, to elegant country garden. We love to work with you to make your vision a reality.

We are happy to make recommendations for vendors who have created beautiful experiences at Kalmia Garden in the past. The following are yours to select based on your vision:

- Tent
- Overnight accommodation
- Caterer
- Bar service
- Officiant

A word about cleanup: We are a small family farm, and we are happy to make our grounds available for your big day. We deep clean our space before and after every event, however we ask that our clients are responsible for the basic clean-up & breakdown of your event.
