THE AMERICAN FACTORY

| VALPARAISO, INDIANA |

1800s

Dating back to the mid-1800s, this site was ground zero for manufacturing in Valparaiso, originally with an 1860s Woolen Mill Company. A dozen or more different manufacturing companies, each with their own interesting history, have called this site home across three centuries, prompting the name "The American Factory Building".

The Welter family returns to their roots to revitalize the second of two 1800s factories (the first in Three Oaks, Michigan) to tell the factory's stories and bring its past back to life. In doing so, Journeyman will offer a world-class venue where guests can share their stories, build their own history, and begin their legacy together with us at The American Factory Building.

FACILITIES AND CAPACITY

Spanning 140,000-square feet, the American Factory Building offers unmatched event spaces incorporating an award-winning distillery (Journeyman), brewery, restaurant, and multiple event spaces. Relive your wedding day time and time again by visiting our facility throughout the year. We offer unique experiences and celebrate occasions from elegant to casual in our historic spaces accommodating parties of 25 to 1,200.

CUISINE

Choose your catering and serving styles, including buffet and plated options. We proudly source local ingredients, offer vegan options, and provide exceptional in-house service. Our culinary team is available to help you create options to make your celebration unique.

After 10+ years of producing hundreds of events at our original location in Three Oaks, Michigan we are taking our event, food, beverage and hospitality to Valparaiso, Indiana.

This venue is fantastic! We were married here this past March and had an amazing experience. The venue is beautiful, charming, and the food and drinks cannot be praised enough. We still have guests reaching out about the high quality. Everyone went above and beyond to make sure everything about our day went off perfectly. I highly recommend them to anyone who is looking for a wedding venue.
