

THE LARIMORE
WEDDING VENUE

Congratulations, you've found us!

Step into the The Larimore, your fairytale wedding destination in St. Louis.

Here's what awaits you:

- A breathtaking vintage estate hidden behind closed gates
- Six acres of grounds including picturesque settings from gardens to gazebos and our own private chapel
- A choice of indoor or outdoor settings for your ceremony

Where classic enchantment and natural beauty meet, The Larimore is the perfect setting for your day.

Say your vows in the gardens with cobblestone pathways or in our chapel. Our adaptable venue suits all ceremonies, offering something for everyone!

Afterwards, move across to our banquet center dating back to 1858, enhanced with rich mahogany woodwork.

Your reception with us assures an unforgettable experience, enveloped in rustic elegance and lasting charm.

Built in 1858, our Italianate-style residence boasts 14 fireplaces, 12-foot ceilings, and unique woodwork. The Larimore family looked after the St. Louis farm for 50 years. In 1989, the Bovey family carefully restored it, preserving its timeless character and historical charm.

We understand the importance of those precious moments before your ceremony. Start your wedding day in comfort and style in our getting ready room, the perfect backdrop for you to prepare and pamper.

We can cater for more intimate celebrations or for larger numbers, up to 200 guests, providing multiple options for your ceremony.

Onsite is our charming chapel for indoor ceremonies, or for outdoor ceremonies our wedding gazebo, offering the ideal space for that romantic outdoor setting.

What's included?

Leading up to your day:

- Our committed team are experienced in assisting with everything you need to make your wedding perfect. The most common thing we hear is 'we've never done this before' so no question is one too many.
- We will invite you for an afternoon or evening planning session to help finalize your vision and layout design prior to your big day.
- Onsite meeting with our Venue Consultant who will be your point of contact once booked and along the way for any venue questions, recommendations and will also be a face on the day!
- Access to the venue and grounds for you and your photographer to have a one hour engagement photo session (subject to availability).

On your day:

- Start your day in our Getting Ready Room, with access from 9am. Enjoy a relaxing, bright and airy space with your loved ones, perfect for those pre-ceremony pictures.
- We don't only guarantee a choice of perfect locations to make memories, but you'll have exclusive use of the whole venue from midday onwards.
- Choice of indoor or outdoor space for your ceremony and our barn for your reception.
- 200 silver chiavari and 200 white folding chairs.
- A selection of round/rectangle tables for up to 200 guests.
- An easel for your seating chart or welcome sign
- Cake stand and knife for your wedding cake.
- Ample onsite parking.
- Onsite security for your evening reception.
- Full use of the grounds, manor home, indoor chapel and reception barn.
