

A full-page photograph of a wedding couple standing in a field of tall green grass. The bride is wearing a white gown and the groom is in a dark suit. They are positioned in the lower-left center of the frame. In the background, there is a large, rugged, light-colored rock formation or cliff under a sky with scattered clouds. To the right of the couple, there are some green trees and shrubs.

The Ceremony

Say "I do" in the heart of the badlands in Medora, North Dakota. The Theodore Roosevelt Medora Foundation (TRMF) is the proud operator of two ceremony locations and three reception locations in the city of Medora. Whether you prefer a black-tie affair or a rustic intimate wedding, TRMF is the best provider in Medora to help you celebrate your big day the way you've always dreamed of.

Your badlands wedding starts with your walk down the aisle. With TRMF, there are a few options to make your ceremony memorable. You can exchange vows on the Tjaden Terrace surrounded by picturesque views of the badlands or say I do on the stage of Elaine's Garden, nestled in the heart of Medora near historic landmarks like the Con Hoffman House. We can help you determine the right fit for your Medora wedding ceremony to make your dreams come to life.

Policies

A nonrefundable deposit equal to half of the total package price along with a signed contract is due upon booking. In the event of inclement weather, TRMF is not responsible for finding back up weather locations for outdoor venues. Security is required for any reception that has a bar and a dance. Hiring security is the responsibility of the wedding party and must be done through the city of Medora. For further information please Nathaniel Awender at 701-872-6038.

All wedding receptions must conclude no later than midnight. TRMF reserves the right to monitor the volume of music if at any time it becomes disruptive to community members or guests. Reception venue rentals start at 10 a.m. the day of the wedding and conclude at midnight. All decorations must be removed immediately after the event. If wedding party wants early entry to the venue, please inquire with a group sales staff member on availability and early entrees fees that apply. Outside food and beverage on TRMF venues will be subject to a fine per TRMF's discretion. Wedding cake and cupcakes are allowed into the venue with pre-approval by group sales staff.

Should a bar not meet the $500 minimum, a $25 bartender fee will be applied to the final invoice, per hour of service. A guaranteed count is required 3 business days prior to the wedding date. It is the responsibility of the wedding party to advise the final guarantee to their TRMF Group Sales staff representative. In the event no guaranteed is received by TRMF, the original contracted number or the actual number of guest served will be charged, whichever is greater. Once set, the guaranteed number can increase in number but cannot decrease.

All catered events are subject to 7.5% state and local sales tax, a 9.5% alcohol sales tax, and an 18% gratuity service charge. All venue and equipment rentals are subject to a 7.5% state and local sales tax. In accordance with city and state fire codes, open flame candles are not allowed. Flames must be enclosed within glass, no less than 3 inches below the enclosure. No confetti, glitter, potpourri, nails, or pushpins are allowed onsite. TRMF does not provide extension cords for your decorating needs. Any cords in a walking path must be taped or secured. Any damage to venue property will be billed to host party.
