HISTORIC CHARM

In 1889, a resilient Charles Goss built the Goss Opera House after fire destroyed his original building. Box seats and a beautiful serpentine balcony, still intact today, overlooked a magnificent stage with superb acoustics. Audiences filled seats for music and theater productions, as well as lavish event like the Merchant's Ball.

The vibrant space slowly went dark after the Depression, and by the late 1950's, it became a largely forgotten part of our history.

Nearly 70-years after going dark a small group of friends rallied thousands to help preserve the history of the Goss Opera House and bring life back to the space. Every inch of the historic building was restored in an extensive five million dollar renovation project, ensuring future generations their own memories at the Goss.

Modern Elegance

Over a century's worth of historic Goss charm is accentuated by luxurious modern spaces. The Goss boasts a world-class sound system, state-of-the-art climate control, as well as elegant decor and beautiful lighting throughout. We are dedicated to making your wedding day everything you have dreamed and more, and would be honored to be part of the memories made on your special day.

Thank you for considering the Goss Opera House.
Your wedding directly supports the Friends of the Goss Opera House, a non-profit committed to preserving this magnificent building for all to enjoy.
