The Garden Room

at the NATIONAL AVIARY

Book your dream wedding at the National Aviary in The Garden Room, where natural design elements and scenic views come together to make Pittsburgh's most unique venue.

Make your wedding unforgettable in an elegant space with amenities you won't find anywhere else.

The Garden Room at the National Aviary is designed to be romantic and inviting, with bookend stone fireplaces, beautiful views of the historic Rose Garden, Allegheny Commons Park, and Lake Elizabeth, with optional open-air access.

From gorgeous fireplaces to modern touches, The Garden Room elegantly captures the ambiance of natural beauty.

Leading to The Garden Room is a beautiful lobby connecting the event space to the National Aviary's immersive habitats via The Charity Randall Foundation Eagle Hall. The Garden Room Lobby is equipped with even more seating – a perfect spot for cocktail hour!

The Garden Room is crafted from brick, stone, and bird-safe glass, and is equipped to seat up to 175 guests – with plenty of floor space for dancing!
