Bel Air 1740

A chic English garden venue at a private 18th century estate

About BelAir 1740

Bel Air, where George and Martha Washington spent their honeymoon night, is located just 25 minutes south of Washington DC in Prince William, Virginia. The 7200 sq. ft. wedding barn features a majestic great hall with a state-of-the-art theatrical sound and lighting system.

VERSATILE INDOOR AND OUTDOOR SPACES

Bel Air 1740's indoor and outdoor spaces allow for all types of events in all weather conditions. The grand all-season covered patio is heated in the winter and is perfect for cocktail receptions and ceremonies. Guests may enjoy the rustic stone firepits and stroll through the English gardens, rose gardens, and cedar alley.

OUTDOOR CEREMONIES

The sprawling 25-acre historic Bel Air Estate— with its romantic English gardens and majestic cedar, walnut and magnolia trees— offer several unique sites for ceremonies and events of all sizes. In inclement weather, events can be moved to the patio.
