Fountain Patio Up to 150 people. This stylish creek side space is sure to please the most discriminating taste with its warm feelings highlighted by a garden fountain festooned with flowers for your event. Off to one side is the “Gazebo” which is oft-times used for ceremonies and “The Hill” with its own waterfall as head table space, or as place to put musicians or whatever you decide. On the far end is the “Waterfall Patio” appropriately named because of the waterfall coming down the hillside under the trees, beautifully enhanced by banks of green foliage. Fee Schedule $1000 to $5000. See your coordinator for a more complete fee schedule.

Waterfall Patio Our secret jewel overlooking the creek, An ethereal charmer as it cascades down the hillside under the trees set off nicely by the evergreen foliage along its banks. The waterfall comes down to circular brick patio which is nestled at its base and, being surrounded on three sides by the grand ‘ol sycamores, oak, pine trees and the creek, it makes a wonderful private atmosphere. The “Waterfall Patio” provides an intimate, garden-like setting for any small function, and excels as a beautiful natural backdrop for private parties. Fee Schedule $200 to $600. See your coordinator for a more complete fee schedule and availability for weddings.

Creekside Patio reverberating with romance, grace, and timeless beauty. The mesmerizing area reflects towering sycamore trees and age-old foliage. But the true star is the ambience lent by having your event along the confluence of two creeks. It is perhaps the most sought after small to medium wedding venue at the Inn. Accommodating up to 90 guests for ceremonies, luncheons, or any memorable occasion. Fee Schedule $300 to $2200. See your coordinator for a more complete fee schedule.

Garden Room Adjacent to the “Fountain Patio”, the “Garden Room” can be used as adjoining space for an additional 50 guests, or simply alone. Our excellent staff will decorate it to your specific occasion, taste, and standards. It is used frequently to as a wine bar by those having weddings on the “Fountain Patio”. It is a wonderful place for small private or holiday parties with its romantic fireplace, twinkle lights and its intimate atmosphere. Fee Schedule $100 to $500. See your coordinator for a more complete fee schedule and availability for weddings.

Church Room Accommodating up to 40 people, this inviting room is the origin of the Inn as a dining oasis in Los Angeles. It was once a church and still has the stained glass windows set high in the walls near the vaulted ceiling. Becoming the original dining room for the Inn, its glass walls look out onto the “Outside” and the “Terrace” with its trees, beautiful foliage and gardens echoing the joy and pleasure of the many customers over the years. Fee Schedule: $100 to $500. See your coordinator for a more complete fee schedule.
