

WEDDINGS
— THE BARN —
AT FALLINGWATER

Congratulations!

The Barn at Fallingwater is a truly unique site. Once owned and operated as part of a dairy farm by the Kaufmann family, this fully renovated 19th-century barn is located at the trailhead of the Bear Run Nature Reserve, just 500 yards north of Fallingwater's main entrance. Set in the rolling hills of the Laurel Highlands, The Barn at Fallingwater offers a distinctive and picturesque location for a wedding. With the serene woodland setting as your backdrop, an imaginative and festive gathering awaits!

The Barn at Fallingwater Property

The Amphitheater Located just uphill from The Barn and accessible by a woodland trail, this unique space is the perfect setting for an outdoor ceremony. The Amphitheatre allows you to get married while encircled by friends, family and the simple beauty of nature. Maximum seating capacity of the Amphitheater is approximately 75 guests. There is additional standing room.

The Courtyard Located off the Fireplace Room, this flagstone patio features a wisteria covered trellis and is the ideal location for an outdoor cocktail hour or an intimate wedding ceremony.

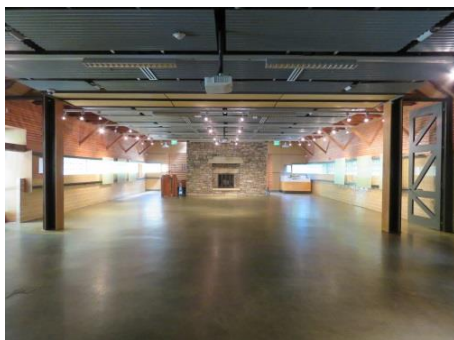

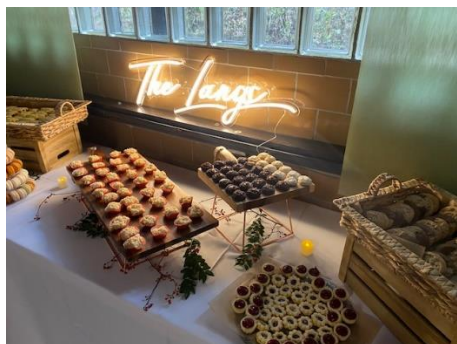

The Threshing Room This large room was restored to preserve the beautiful craftsmanship of the timber frame construction and barn board walls. The 3200-square-foot seasonal space (78' x 43') can be opened up to the outdoors with large sliding barn doors, allowing for additional tented space. Both the Fireplace Room and the Threshing Room have interior and exterior access and are connected by a staircase to The Barn's lobby. Maximum seating capacity inside of the Threshing Room is approximately 150 guests. Seating capacity is dependent upon configuration.

The Barn at Fallingwater Property

The Fireplace Room Originally the dairy farm's milking parlor, this 1800-square-foot climate-controlled space (53' x 34') features a large stone fireplace, integrated audiovisual, and a retractable partition wall. Events can take advantage of an adjacent exterior flagstone courtyard for outdoor functions. Maximum seating capacity of the Fireplace Room is approximately 75 guests. Seating capacity is dependent upon configuration.

The Farmhouse Built in 1870 by the Tissue family and purchased by Edgar Kaufmann in the 1940s, the Farmhouse provides a welcoming and comfortable space for soon-to-be wedded couples to relax and prepare for their celebration. The Farmhouse is air-conditioned and features a full kitchen, two bathrooms, and plenty of space for the bride, groom, family and friends to get ready for their special day.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS:

Q: Do we have to use one of your preferred caterers?

A: No, but we do require use of licensed/insured caterers for food & beverage service.

Q: Are you permitted to have alcohol on site? How does that work?

A: Alcohol can be served and purchased on your own, but must be done as an "open bar" since we do not have a liquor license. Purchasing your own alcohol can be a major cost savings, but a RAMP certified bartender must be used when serving alcohol.

Q: What size tables do you have available?

A: We provide 72" round tables, 60" round tables, 48" round tables, 36" round high-top cocktail tables, 6' banquet tables, and padded wooden folding chairs for up to 150 guests

Q: What transportation services are available for guests to get to & from their accommodations?
