WELCOME TO LEXINGTON

Whether you just rode into town, or have been here your entire life, Lexington is sure to feel like home. Nestled in the heart of horse country, our historic city is as famous for its thoroughbreds as it is for its Southern grace and charm. We sure hope you get a chance to experience them all.

The Campbell House is conveniently located near downtown, and only four miles from Blue Grass Airport and the legendary Keeneland Racecourse, putting the best of Lexington quite literally at your doorstep. Guests are encouraged to visit the nearby Kentucky Horse Park, University of Kentucky, or one of the many local bourbon distilleries for a taste of the best that Lexington has to offer.

HOTEL HISTORY

The Campbell House first opened its doors in 1951, and quickly became a favorite destination for Lexingtonians. The hotel's antebellum architecture, iconic horse farm fencing, and famous Southern hospitality welcome guests in true Kentucky style from the very first moment they arrive. Our historic, boutique hotel seamlessly blends the classic elegance of our rich cultural past, with a fresh modern style, and the latest amenities that today's guests appreciate and require. Step inside and discover our legendary hospitality which has drawn world leaders, equestrian enthusiasts, and generations of brides and grooms who have chosen to make The Campbell House their home away from home in Lexington.
