

Conferences & Receptions

Propose a toast with a cocktail reception on the rooftop terrace of the Donald R. Conklin Conference Center with its charming views of the Manhattan skyline, before you and your guests elevator down to the eloquent, glass-exterior lobby for an intimate evening of dinner and dancing. Or perhaps you're planning a luncheon, recognition ceremony, fundraiser, reunion or birthday party. Our variety of elegant dining and reception halls are suitable for large audiences or intimate gatherings with friends and family.

New Jersey
Center for

Science
Technology
& Mathematics

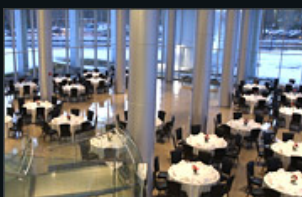

STEM

zoom

Donald R. Conklin Conference Center

- Located on the top floor of the newly built STEM building, featuring a glass-exterior and open air terrace with views of the Manhattan skyline.
- Banquet-style seating for 200; Standing capacity 400.
- 6003 sq. ft.

zoom

STEM Atrium

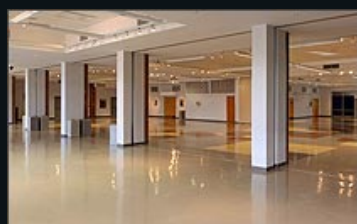

- Located on the ground-level of the newly built STEM building, featuring a glass-exterior with outdoor porticos, a grand staircase and terrazzo flooring.
- Banquet-style seating for 200; Standing capacity 600.
- 4429 sq. ft.

zoom

Kean Hall Conference Center

- Located on the Main Campus, this historic building is the focal point of the University.
- Banquet-style seating for 90; Lecture-style seating for 120; Standing capacity 200
- 2037 sq. ft.

zoom

Downs Hall Reception Center

- Large multipurpose room with room dividers and lobby registration area.
- Banquet-style seating for 450; Lecture-style seating for 700; Standing capacity 1500
- Room dividers allow for four separate Dining Rooms suitable for gatherings of 150-200 people.
- A patio and tent are also available for events from April 15 through November 15; banquet-style seating for 200.
- 10,846 sq. ft.