

Gadsden House

VENUE GUIDE

A BRIEF INTRO about the venue

Located in the heart of Downtown Charleston, full of southern charm + rich history, The Gadsden House is the perfect venue for wedding ceremonies + receptions, rehearsal dinners, welcome parties, social gatherings + corporate events.

The Federal style Charleston manor was originally built in 1798 by Revolutionary War hero Christopher Gadsden who presented his son with the property as a wedding gift.

The home served the Gadsden family for generations before becoming one of the top historic properties to preserve in Charleston.

In 2015, the house + grounds were reimagined + underwent massive restoration, transforming the site into one of the city's most sought after private event spaces.

Whether it's a ceremony in the courtyards, cocktail party on the piazzas or seated reception throughout the parlor rooms, The Gadsden House offers an unparalleled backdrop to host all of life's many celebrations!

A PEEK INSIDE the property

As an heirloom property featuring a recent restoration, The Gadsden House offers a seamless blend of historic character, contemporary elegance + modern amenities.

Four grand parlor rooms boast original heart pine floors, impressive floor-to-ceiling windows, beautiful fireplaces, crystal chandeliers + neutral “paper white” walls, as well as a sound system + adaptive climate control.

Three intimate courtyards showcase a mix of bluestone, Charleston brick + oyster tabby surfaces. Magnolias, crepe myrtles + palm trees create an intimate urban oasis. Custom tenting options ensure versatile use of the outdoor spaces, rain or shine.

Expansive Southern piazzas, complete with gas lanterns + traditional “haint blue” ceilings, offer views of the property’s lush courtyard gardens + Charleston’s waterfront.

A beautifully furnished bridal suite + handsomely appointed groom’s quarters allow for all day relaxation for the entire wedding party!
